

FOR CHAIR VICTIM'S ESTATE.

Administrator Asked That Justice Greenbaum Hear May He Said For.

An application for letters of administration in the estate of John Greenbaum, who was electrocuted at Sing Sing Prison, Aug. 4, for the murder of his wife, was filed today.

The petitioner was Charles F. Carr of No. 118 West 125th Street and Taylor Street, a creditor of the deceased. Although Greenbaum left no property, as far as is known, the petitioner declared his intention of bringing suit to compel the payment of insurance policy on the life of the deceased man, which would secure the payment of the claim. Carr left no relative.

Some picnic! We didn't decide to go till the night before. Nothing in the house to eat. But before I knew it my wife made sponge cake and cookies and rolls with D & C. We got some meat and—well it was some picnic!

CHARGES AGAINST PRIESTS ARE DISMISSED BY JUSTICE GREENBAUM

COURT DEALS WITH CHARGES OF CRIMINAL LIBEL.

In reference to the charges of criminal libel, Justice Greenbaum said:

"In so far as the information charges that Commissioners Kingsbury and Doherty were criminally libeled by the Farrell pamphlet, it seems clear that the prosecution has failed to establish a crime. They were themselves responsible for the circulation of the Moore pamphlet which contained some statements against the Catholic institutions which were untrue."

"The Farrell pamphlet may contain statements concerning them which were unwarranted, but considering that they were public officials and that the objectionable utterances in the Farrell pamphlet related exclusively to comments concerning them in their official capacity in connection with the Strong Committee, it seems to me that the publication as to them must be regarded as 'excused' within the meaning of the law."

"With respect to the charge that these publications constituted criminal libel against Commissioner Strong, a different situation exists. There was no proof submitted to me from which it may fairly be said that the Commissioner did anything to subject him to the charges of tyranny and unfairness, and of conducting the hearings before him with an anti-Catholic animus."

"The conclusion is inevitable that the publications concerning them which were unwarranted, and hence the information must be dismissed."

Regarding the charge of perjury made against Hebbard, Justice Greenbaum said:

"I have already held that Commissioner Strong had no jurisdiction to examine witnesses respecting the relations of the defendants to the publication of the Farrell pamphlet. It would seem logically to follow from this ruling that the examination of Hebbard, during which his alleged perjurious testimony was given, was not material to the issue."

Since the close of the inquiry before Justice Greenbaum, Daniel C. Potter, one of the defendants and the storm center of the whole charities controversy, has died. During the inquiry Detective John J. Kennel, one of the principal members of the wiretapping squad, attempted suicide. He was discharged from the hospital a few weeks ago.

At one point in his findings Justice Greenbaum said:

"It seems to be undisputed that those connected with the administration of Catholic charities are included with the conviction that the material upon the Catholic Church itself."

In the MEN'S Corner

A Selection of New Things

Well Dressed on $24.75

The Price of a Hand-Tailored New Fall Suit at Macy's

Are you one of the men who are planning to spend $30 or more for a new Fall Suit, perhaps to have one made to order?

Or are you figuring on spending about $25 and want to get the most that $25 will buy?

In either case you will find Macy's Suits at $24.75 fulfilling your requirements in every particular and exceeding your expectations.

The three important features that are pre-dominant in every Macy's Suit are:

1. The Materials, which are among the finest fancy and mixed worsteds made by American mills.
2. The Hand-Tailoring in every suit which is equal in quality to that found in high priced custom suits.
3. The Styles, which embody every new feature in fashion, and among which are smart models for young men as well as many for those who are older and more conservative.

Macy's Suits will appeal strongly to the man whose business necessitates his being well dressed, yet who does not care to pay the extravagant prices asked by merchant tailors and "Avenue" shops.
